TRIAL OF DURRANT

Testimony Finished and Argument In the Case Begun.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24—After a further brief strength listening session the testimony was finished yesterday, and today the argument of the case was begun. When the argument was finished yesterday afternoon District Attorney Barnes announced that he would not formally close the case for the jury, but would undoubtedly do so the next morning. Mr. Barnes mouthed the attorneys for the defense that at the most he would have but one more witness, whose examination would last but a few moments.

The case would have ended in a pyrotechnic display of sensation if the testimony that was introduced had not been printed so often before that it was familiar to everybody. Miss Carrie Cunningham, a newspaper reporter who visited Durrant at the prison frequently, testified that Durrant told her he saw Blanche Lamont on the second floor of the belfry where she was murdered. While engaged in fixing a snuff-burner, Mrs. Cunningham said, he told her he heard a suspicious noise in the belfry which attracted his attention. He crept along the ceiling of the church until he came to the belfry casing, where he looked through a crack and saw Miss Lamont.

Only two witnesses besides Miss Cunningham were examined today. Both were physicians. Doctors May and Rosenstein, who were examined, testified that the first effect of gas was to flush the face and lips and inflame the eyes. Durrant, according to his own statement, had not had the symptoms. The physicians also testified that a man, who for five minutes had been subjected to fumes of escaping gas from 24 jets, would be insensible.

Court Granting Divorce Imposes Six Months' Single Blessedness.

RUSHVILLE, Ind., Oct. 24—With the expectation of a favorable return from a divorce case pending in a Louisville court, Peter Cassidy, a brakeman on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, made preparation to marry Bertha Lital of this city. He called at the clerk's office and arranged for a license and even hired a cabman. At the expected hour a telegram was received from Louisville stating that the divorce had been granted, but that the parties to the suit had been forbidden to remarry for six months. Mr. Cassidy will postpone his second marriage in compliance therewith.

45 DEGREES BELOW ZERO

WAS THE TEMPERATURE THAT THEY ENCOUNTERED IN MARCH.

Tempestuous Weather Encountered—Arenic Bears Numerous and Frowled Inquisitively About the Cabins—Maps of the Austrian Expedition Need Revision. Latitude 81.20 Reached.

LONDON, Oct. 24—The documents brought from the explorer Jackson, which were brought back by the Windward, after leaving the explorer on Franz Josef land, and which were kept sealed up in one of the cabins of the Windward during her return trip, were opened yesterday, and the papers were found to record that the expedition landed at Cape Flora on Sept. 7, where they erected hightouses. All the members were given certain duties to insure regular exercise. Bears soon appeared to the number of 30, and together with eight walrus, were killed and added to the winter's provisions. The only men who died of scurvy refused to eat bears' meat.

The winter was very tempestuous and the Arenic bears prowled around the log cabins and even looked in at the windows. The winter darkness ended on Feb. 23 Jackson and two others started north on March 10 with two ponies and two sledges. The temperature was sometimes 43 degrees below zero. The ponies proved to be invaluable for clambering over hummocks in the ice. The country generally was at a height of 2,500 feet, and was covered with ice sheets, which were interrupted along the coast by high basaltic cliffs on which were found mosses and arctic flowers.

The journey revealed many inaccuracies in the charts. The land was found on the Austria sound coast line to be very different from what is shown by the maps of the Austrian expedition. Sea islands were found where the main land was supposed to exist; The farthest point reached was latitude 81 degrees 20 minutes north, where two boats were left for use later in the summer. Three deposits were also established en route.

Many geological specimens were taken which show that the formation of the land is mainly basaltic.

A second journey began in April and ended in the middle of May. It was a very successful one, and the expedition returned to the ship on June 10.

FORM A MOST IMPOSING SPECTACLE IN THE GREAT PARADE.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 24—The Ohio Masonic Home, built at a cost of $150,000, was dedicated yesterday in the presence of 40,000 people.

People poured into the city all the forenoon from every part of the state. Four special trains were run from Cincinnati, and specials from Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Sidney, Toledo and elsewhere. The city was elaborately decorated for the occasion.

The program began with a parade over the principal streets to the home. There were 10,000 Masons in line, nearly 3,000 of whom were Knights Templars. The line of march was thronged with sightseers.

Upon arriving at the home grounds the subordinate Masonic bodies formed in a square in front of the home building. The grand officers, trustees of the home and invited guests passed into the dedication platform, where long rows of seats had been prepared for their convenience. The dedication services opened with an overture by the Warren (O.) Commandery band. A report of the home trustees was read by Secretary J. H. Bromwell of Cincinnati.

John M. Stull of Warren, president of the board of trustees, addressed Grand Master Clapp, requesting him to consecrate and dedicate the home to the uses and purposes for which it was intended. Next came the address of Grand Architect J. W. Iredell to the M. W. grand master, surrendering his implements of office.

Following this was the response of Grand Master Carroll F. Clapp. In concluding his eloquent remarks Mr. Clapp said:

"In name of the Grand lodge of Ohio and in the name of 40,000 true and valiant Masons without rank of grade we will proceed to dedicate and consecrate it to the benevolent uses for which it was intended."

Rev. William E. Moore of Columbus then offered invocation, which was fol-

Will the Farmer Let It Go On?

Twenty years ago the pride of this country was its agricultural population.

Washington himself had delighted in nothing so much as in farming and prize stock raising. The same was true of many of our earlier presidents. Their example seemed to fill the agricultural with a noble pride in his occupation.

He owned his land and tilled it. He was intelligent and progressive. His sons became the successful lawyers and physicians of the city, his daughters became schoolmistresses and went to college. His ancestry had been American for three or four generations, and he was proud of the fact.

It is no longer. The last census shows that there are now nearly or quite four times as many tenant farmers as land owning farmers. In an article on the subject not long since the Boston

Herald used these words: "The small landlords are giving up their properties

because they are too deeply in debt to hold them. Our farms are passing into the hands of tenants and of farm laborers. What this means it is not difficult to discover. It is forcing the agriculturists of the country gradually into a position of dependence, placing them largely under the control of wealthy lords who have no interest in them except to collect their rents."

A more melancholy change could hardly have taken place in the economic aspect of the United States. The tenant farmers themselves are no longer Americans, as a rule, but are foreign born peasants. The question is this: Will freeborn American farmers allow themselves to sink down into an American peasant tenant class, as is the case in Great Britain, with the great landowner lordling it over them like a nobleman?

If so, then there was no use in the Revolution, no use in proclaiming the Declaration of Independence—no use in anything.

In the Way of Oriental Reform.

As nearly as can be ascertained in the western world, the queen of Korea was assassinated because of her opposition to the designs of her father-in-law,

Tai Won Kun, the old, foggy and reactionary of the hermit kingdom. One dispatch says she was eager for reform and reconstruction of the kingdom on modern principles, but Prince Pak, himself a fugitive from Korea because he wished to modernize it, denies this.

The difficulty of working reforms in an oriental kingdom is not appreciated

in Europe and America. The ex-sultan of Turkey tried it, with the result that he was pronounced insane and confined

as a lunatic, and the present sultan,

Abdul Hamid, a conservative, was raised to the throne. Attempts have been made to assassinate the mikado of Japan

by the reactionary party. If by some miracle the Mautscho emperor of China should experience a change of heart, endeavor to reform his rotten and corrupt old government and introduce nineteenth century methods and inventions, he would either be slain or dethroned in a month's time.

In every one of these almost hopeless

old oriental countries the common herd masses itself with all the force of ignorance and superstition against anything

new. This is the force, at home and in his own camp, that has to be reckoned with most heavily, even when an oriental ruler himself desires reform.

On the whole, the wedding trousseaux

of American millionaires' daughters have about reached the point where they border on the vulgar. There seems to be in the case of each in turn a determination to outdo in simple money value everything that went before. It is precisely the spirit of rivalry manifested

by the silly, ignorant and unrefined of

In all my day.

I will not seek to speed

The lingering day

Until my anxious eyes somewhere hath caught

Now fancy travels out and conjures up

A long and brilliant train.

It all floats by—

Joy and sadness go

With laugh and sigh.

And drops of pain lie deep in pleasure's cup.

But now I see two tender hazel eyes

Turn on me—lips that smile. Ah, herein lies

My sweet today!

A perfume breathes from pictures of the mind,

And in our fancy memory carves her lore.

Our dearest treasures in the air we find.

French Journalism.

The Paris press comprises nearly 50 daily newspapers, the aggregate not having varied greatly during the last ten years. Most of these are sold for a sou. An extremely limited number is sold for 2 sous, and two or three only for 3 sous, or a little less than 3 halfpence. It is hardly necessary to say, by way of preliminary comment, that a dozen really able journals would be better supported and better serve the interests of the public. The French people, taken as a mass, have little money to pay for the gratification of the small amount of literary taste they possess, an opinion entertained by the novelist Zola, who declared in an interview a few months ago that reviews and magazines like those of England and America would not find in France a sufficient number of readers to justify their publication.

The Revue des Deux Mondes is supported by the professional literature, the learned professions and an aristocracy of birth and money. It is rarely seen outside these circles.

Even the handsome and readable weekly illustrated newspapers, such as The Illustration and Monde Illustré, have only a small circulation,

confined principally to the cafes,

though the literary matter they contain is generally of an elevated character, and especially adapted for family use.—National Review.

A POLITICAL SCHEME

To Induce the Amanda Township Populists to Support the Republican Ticket.

There is a combination on between the Republicans of Amanda township and those of the members of the Populist party who formally affiliated with the Republicans, who by the latter are to throw their full strength for the Republican candidate for Treasurer. He has been invited by the Republicans of that township to go down there and call on the Republican-Populists with a positive assurance that he will receive their votes. It now behooves the Populists who were once Democrats to likewise bolt the Populist ticket and cast their vote for the Democratic candidate for Treasurer, Mr. Lutz, and this they will no doubt do. They will not permit themselves to be used as tools by the Republican Ringsters, by which they would simply waste their votes and assist in the success of the stragglers.

LOOTED.

Lima's Treasury Emptied by the Republican Ring.

Which Took the People's Money in Season and Out of Season.

The Shameless Raid Made on the Treasury by the Stranglers Has Exhausted all the City's Resources.

And She is Now a Pauper—Orders are Dishonored and Credit Impaired by the Evil Deeds of the Gang Which Now Controls Her Affairs.

There is not one cent in the City Treasury, outside of the Water Works and Poor funds.

The treasury has been deliberately looted under the present Republican administration, and the hard-earned money of the taxpayers scattered to the four winds.

The stragglers who dictate the policy of the present administration have dissipated the money until not an order on any fund can be paid. All bear the endorsement "not paid for want of funds," and at once begin bearing interest at the rate of six per cent., involving an additional burden upon the people who have already paid so heavy a tribute for having the affairs of the city mismanaged by a corrupt gang of political tricksters.

It costs this city alone $30,000 a year in interest on its debt.

This is the penalty for having its public affairs managed by the corrupt Republican Ring, which has fastened its eyes on the court house and is trying to work in there.

The same gang now want to loot the county treasury.

The advent of such a crowd of Stranglers into the county treasury would prove a most direful calamity to the taxpayers.

The condition of the city treasury is not a matter of conjecture. It is not merely in an "almost" bankrupt condition. It is entirely, absolutely, positively so, and worse. The Republican Ring has wasted the money, added to the bonded debt, largely increased the floating debt, increased the tax rate, and the entire financial fabric has collapsed under the blasting effects of the Stranglers' management.

And they are now attempting to hoodwink the people into voting for the Republican candidate for treasurer in order that they may get possession of some of the county money to squander.

All the clap-trap published in the Republican Ring organ reflecting on the Allen county treasurer, is the veriest rot designed by the Stranglers to divert attention from the real object in getting into the treasury, which is simply that more money may come into the hands of the Republican Ring to be squandered, as they have squandered the city funds.

REPUBLICAN SCHEMING.

I see by your press that the Republicans are attacking Lutz, the Democratic candidate for treasurer, on the pretense that he lacks capacity to do the duties of the office, a consideration which did not occur to the Democracy who nominated him, because it is not true or the fact. It is a charge that can appeal to that class in all society which does not value at their worth other men, can be made without truth and create a doubt in minds, personally unacquainted with Mr. Lutz. And that to the Republican managers justifies its use, though false certainly. Mr. Lutz is fully as well qualified for county treasurer as Mr. Standish, whom you do not assail, not wishing like the Republican party in Lutz's case, to make charges without fact to sustain them, merely for party profit. The secret of the whole matter is this: The Republicans comprehended that it is hopeless to attempt to defeat the Democratic county ticket, and so they would like to punch a hole in it, to get one, if possible, and if they succeeded in doing that they might hereafter do more.

And so in addition they attack the present Treasurer's discharge of duty on vague and general charges, which may mean everything but really mean nothing, except to injure Lutz as a candidate. This is indeed a sharp political game, if rascally and fraudulent; so sharp that it must have been suggested by the sharp boss party gamblers at Columbus. But it will not win. Honest men in all parties support their party tickets because even in county matters the doing so goes to sustain the principles their party represents in the administration of government, state and national, and are not to be moved from this wise action by the wild assertions against a candidate, unsustained and unsustainable by fact. I would really like to see the hole left where the brain ought to be of the green one who would be captured by such palpable, scheming trickery and humbug. There would be no question of his want of capacity as an elector, for his readiness to be gulled would be ample fact in the case. But let Democrats do their duty, as in the past. It is best for the county and the country.

AN OLD DEMOCRAT.

RUSLER

Made a Good Record While in Columbus.

A Marked Contrast to the Boodle Republicans.

Who Sold Their Birthright for a Mess of Pottage—and a Small One at That.

A Meritorious Bill Introduced by the Member From Allen County Even Endorsed by the Republican Press.

The Republican party is having a very troublesome time explaining away the acts of Boss Cox, of Hamilton county. The Democratic members of the last legislature offered them a way out in the primary election bill of Representative Rusler, of Allen county, which was endorsed by the independent Republican press of the State, notably by such papers as the Toledo Blade, and every intelligent voter of the State will heartily favor such sentiments, as it is evident that since the advent of the Australian ballot system, the way of the bosses has been to corrupt nominations by the use of promises and boodle. It is an untold secret that Representative Cannon, of Cincinnati, after the introduction of this bill by Mr. Rusler, went to the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives and secured a copy of the bill to take home with him over the weekly recess, from Friday noon until Monday. After the inspection had been duly made by the bosses at home, the Hamilton county members were a unit against the bill. They had evidently "seen" somebody and received their instructions. The result of their consultation cropped out when the bill came before the committee for a hearing, as it was at once referred to the Secretary of State for his opinion, which was duly delivered later on "that it would be a good thing for the people, but the time was not yet ripe for such a bill. The following is the Blade's comments on the bill:

The most important bill introduced yesterday and one of the most important and meritorious measures which has come to light this winter, was the bill presented by Mr. Rusler, of Allen county. It provides for holding primary elections in all the counties of the State under the Australian method. The author thinks the bill should be entitled a measure to purify politics. The bill provides that primary elections of all parties shall be held the Tuesday after the second Monday in June, and that these primary elections shall be held under the supervision of the deputy board of supervisors of elections. Each party which has a ticket to nominate will be entitled to a judge, and each of the two great parties shall have a clerk. The tickets are not to be printed on blank sheets, but the candidates of each party are to be placed on one ticket. With this exception the primaries are to be conducted the same as general elections.

The expense of these primaries is to be paid by the counties. Mr. Rusler has submitted this bill to prominent men in both parties and all are favorably impressed with it, believing that it will have a tendency to purify politics at its fountain head.

The biggest job the Republican leaders of Ohio have had for a long time is trying to explain the corruption of the last legislature.

The bombardment which Governor Campbell is giving the corrupt Cox gang fills the souls of the bosses with terror.

Boss Cox, at least, does not hail the coming of the Campbells with unalloyed pleasure.

NOTHING

Has Commissioner Osman Found Wrong

In the Management of Allen County's Business.

Two Years Has He Served and Had Access to the Public Records

Yet Not One Crooked Transaction Has He Discovered.

For several years a set of unscrupulous Stranglers who have been in the management of the Republican party of Allen county have had envious eyes upon the fair treasury of this county. Her affairs went along so smoothly; good public buildings were erected; excellent pikes penetrated every portion of the county; the taxes were light for county purposes; the county debt was being reduced every year, and all was in such excellent shape that those vamps who have sucked the life-blood from this unfortunate city, determined, if possible, to break into the county offices and make some profit out of the county. It hurt them badly to think that a rich county like Allen should be out of debt, for they calculated upon the gains that they might make out of some big jobs such as have rendered bankrupt the treasury of Lima. So they determined to make a prodigious effort to get their hands into the treasury.

In the slump which occurred two years ago in the campaign of 1893, they succeeded in electing as commissioner A. J. Osman, of Perry township, and the Ring's expectations were that he would, immediately upon going into office, furnish the ammunition with which to destroy the Democratic party which has for years so ably conducted the county's business. Mr. Osman took his seat and for two years has gone in and out of the commissioner's office, with free and full access to all the books and records of the county; to all the former business transactions of the former boards of commissioners.

But he has found nothing wrong, nothing crooked, nothing which would not bear the closest scrutiny. He found the business of the county conducted with great economy, with the strictest integrity and with the most careful regard for the interest of the taxpayers whose business the commissioners are elected to transact.

Disappointed at finding no cause for complaint, the Stranglers have now in their desperate efforts commenced a campaign of vilification and slander of honest officials with which they hope to encompass the defeat of a portion of the county ticket and place the Republican Ring in possession of the county money. These unscrupulous Ringsters do not care anything for good public service; they have not the slightest idea of bettering it should they get control of the county affairs. They are out for boodle, and are resorting to the tricks and methods of desperate political hacks in order to get it. But their campaign is reacting on them and the whole Republican ticket will this fall be turned down by a majority of at least 1200 votes.

The South Carolina convention could not digest the divorce question. It was too much for the delegates. They wrestled with it till they grew hot under the collar. Then they wiped the perspiration from their brows and adjourned to take some popsin pills, leaving the matter just where they found it, so that nobody will hereafter, any more than was the case formerly, be able to get a divorce in South Carolina for any cause whatsoever. What is more, South Carolina does not recognize divorce obtained in any other state. If a man who had been divorced should marry again and go to live in South Carolina, his children by the second marriage would not be recognized under the law and could not inherit his property. Married people who contemplate settling in South Carolina ought to be acquainted with the peculiar laws of that commonwealth.

One of the things the present legislature was to do was to adjust the state finances. It only borrowed money.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

In every speech made by J. S. Coxey he denounces Governor Campbell and the Democratic party, but hasn't a word to say against George B. Cox and the Republican gang. Coxey is at least true to his employers. The Republican state executive committee pay his campaign expenses and a good salary to go about the state trying to fool Democrats and others out of their votes for the benefit of the Cox-Forsaker gang.

Dr. B. W. Richardson, knighted for his distinguished service to medical science, has evolved from his mind a stupendous system of water supply and drainage canals. He believes that drainage should be a national matter instead of a local one. Instead of 100,000 little local drainage systems there should be one great one, following the lines of railway. This would not be so very difficult, for the leveling has already been to a great extent done. A local sewer would lead from each main group of buildings to a common sewer, and that would be connected with the great main that followed the railroad track. The contents of the main should be conveyed to points distant from any human habitation. There the sewage would be converted into fertilizers to be returned to the soil and enrich it with a plant food which is now entirely wasted. Dr. Richardson's scheme also comprehends the establishment of a national water supply system along the lines of railroad. In some places the supply would be obtained by tapping the great lakes; in others smaller lakes and rivers. In this water supply of the future there will be abundant provision for irrigation and flushing waste pipes as well as for road sprinkling.

$150,000

Is the First Raid the Ring Will Make

On Allen County's Treasury, if They Break Into It.

The Nefarious Scheme to Waste the County Money Concocted by the Republican Ring of Lima.

These Stragglers are Anxious to Get Possession of the Public Money That They May Revel in It.

Never was there a more nefarious scheme than that which the Republican Ring has concocted to plunge Allen county into an indebtedness of $150,000 immediately after they get control of Allen county's affairs, should they succeed in so doing at the November election. In is the only way they see in which to reward those whom they are now coaching in a hope of securing necessary help to elect their ticket on election day.

Promises by the score have been made that if the Republican Ring ticket is elected the county money will be "loosened up" more than it has been under the present administration and that soft berths will be provided for all who will assist in the work of the campaign.

The gang is desperate. The city's treasury has been milked dry, and her credit has been impaired by the enormous debt that has been piled upon her. The bond issue is up to a point beyond which even these stragglers dare not go. Their only hope of a continuance to live off the public pail is to get control of Allen county and revel in the money collected upon the county duplicate.

But Lima, with her bankrupt treasury, is a constant menace to the success of these nefarious stragglers, and they are resorting to all manner of schemes to divert the attention of the public from her, and they hope by making charges against the present county management to disguise the real motives which are inspiring their zeal to get into the control of the court house patronage.

Allen county is now practically out of debt. These stragglers would plunge her into an indebtedness of $150,000 at the first venture. The interest on this alone, which the taxpayers would be called on to pay, would be about $9,000 a year, in addition to what would be needed to pay the principal. Instead of a reduction of $25,000 a year in the taxes collected from the county, the amount would rapidly increase until the entire county would be groaning beneath a burden similar to that which now keeps Lima from forging to the front as she would had her finances been managed as those of Allen county have been under the economical management of a faithful, efficient corps of Democratic officials.

Keep the stragglers out and let us continue to have low taxes and economical, honest government in old Allen county.

Mrs. Amene Rives Chandler doubtless found that a humdrum married life was incompatible with that perfect freedom of movement and thought which are conducive to the best work of a literary woman of an artistic mind. Perhaps Mr. Chandler, too, found that humdrum married life was incompatible with his perfect freedom as a traveler and a clubman. But now that they have been divorced, it is to be hoped we shall not hear too many bad jokes about the quick or the dead, or yet the quick and the divorced.

BOSSISM

As Applied to Ohio Politics by Geo. Cox

Who Whips All the Republicans into Line

Big and Little Members of the Party Obey the Crack of His Whip.

And He will be Practically Governor Should Bushnell be Elected.

The people of Ohio in every city, town or township are disgusted with the bossism of such unscrupulous people as George B. Cox, the boss of the Republican party in Ohio. It is an undisputed fact that he brought about Bushnell's nomination, and should he be elected George Cox will be the dictator who will manage the affairs of this state. What a spectacle this would be to the great state of Ohio! To be dominated by a man from a place on Longworth or George street, Cincinnati.

In yesterday's Enquirer in a discussion on the evils of bossism as laid down by George B. Cox, the following article appeared in reference to measure introduced by Representative Rusler, of Allen county, which had it passed, would have shorn Cox of his power. The Enquirer says:

The exposure made by Governor Campbell of the system of bossism now controlling the Republican party in this state has aroused the people more thoroughly than anything that has transpired for years. The Democratic minority in the last General Assembly are fully in accord with the ex-Governor on this subject, as witnessed by the primary election bill introduced by Representative Wm. Rusler, of Allen county, at the last session, which, had it become a law, would have shorn the political bosses everywhere in the state of a large per cent of their influence.

It is said that when Mr. Rusler's bill came up for a hearing before the Committee on elections, a certain member of the Hamilton County delegation secured a copy of this bill, took home with him, and from that time on the bill had no show of passing. Mr. Cox can tell possibly why it went to sleep to wake no more.

Country School Teachers.

John Gilmer Speed boldly makes it. The Forum's assertion that the American farmer of today is nothing like as well educated or so intelligent as the farmer of 40 years ago was. The reason is that American public schools, city and country, have drifted into politics. The trail of the serpent of spoils is over them all.

Mr. Speed visited one school in a "city of the third rank." What city it was he does not say. The school trustee for a certain ward was a man who had made money at lively stable keeping. He was a politician. Old Brown, a saloon keeper who had "stuck by the trustee in all elections," died and left his family destitute. By the power of politics the trustee put old Brown's daughter in as teacher in his ward. He said to Mr. Speed:

"I ups and puts this place for Sussie, and she done first rate. I give her the promotion, and next year she gets in principal. Now, that's what I call good politics and good reform. Keep the best places for our own friends."

They visited the school which the saloon keeper's daughter taught. She was a young woman with painted cheeks and bleached yellow hair. "Her accent was atrocious, her voice shrill and sharp." Miss Sussie reprimanded a girl pupil. The girl called out:

"I didn't do nothing, ma'am."

"Didn't do nothing," called Miss Sussie. "Where do you expect to go to? I seen you when you done it."

Mr. Speed is a gentleman and a chronicler of facts. We have his serious word that this talk actually proceeded from the mouth of a young woman who next year is going to be a principal.

The country schools of the United States in many instances do not pay a teacher as much as an ordinary servant of all work gets in a city. That is one reason the teachers are so incompetent and illiterate. The other reason is politics. The following statement is not pleasant or palatable, but it ought to be spread far and wide if it is true: "The inefficiency of the country school has resulted in what might quite properly be called the American peasantry being as illiterate and uneducated as any class of people in any civilized state in the world."

Country people are recommended to ascertain if this statement is true.

The fact that J. S. Coxey is in frequent consultation with the Republican executive committee at Columbus, and confers with the local Republican committees in all the counties he visits, ought to open the eyes of Democrats to the fact that he is simply one of George B. Cox's sideshows in a big game of Junko.

McKinley, Forsaker, Bushnell, Charley Grosvenor and the rest of the Republican outfit are still pounding away at Campbell's opening campaign speech at Columbus, and there isn't a dent in it yet.

Governor McKinley is still sadly meandering through the state with his collapsed remnants of his tariff law.

POLICE COURT.

Arrested for Selling Ralph McGinnis' Coat and Vest.

Boys Locked Up for Shooting Beams in the Opera House—Other Police News

John Enright, who has been before the mayor twice recently for drunkenness, was locked up again last night.

Ralph McGinnis gave Enright a coat and vest to clean for him, and the latter sold them for $1.50 at Silver's second-hand store on north Tanner street.

When taken before the mayor this morning Enright claimed that he was going to do some work to-day for the man to whom he sold the coat and vest, and promised the mayor that if he would release him he would redeem the goods and return them to their owner. His wife also pleaded for his freedom for the sake of their children, and the mayor finally let him go, on condition that he return the coat and vest.

After the prisoner was released the man who had purchased the coat and vest refused to give it up and said he had not promised to employ Enright. McGinnis is anxious to recover possession of his coat and vest and may cause either Enright or the second hand dealer some trouble.
